

Branch Jane Addams Programs

October 1, 2007

Crystal Lake Branch

Program: Jane Addams – Hull- House – Barbara Zeitz will be speaking on the founder of Hull-House, Jane Addams, who initiated social reforms methods that have formulated the basis for social work today.

October 10, 2007

Lake Forest-Lake Bluff Branch

Bus tour to Hull-House, lunch, tour and lecture at U. of I., Chicago Campus.

November 3, 2007

Downers Grove Area Branch and Hinsdale Branch

Oak Brook Public Library

1200 Oak Brook Road

Time: 10:00 a.m.

Cost: $10.00

In honor of this special holiday, we are happy to present Annette Baldwin in a characterization of Jane Addams.

November 14, 2007

Lake Forest-Lake Bluff Branch

14th EF Fundraiser – Dramatization, “Voices of Jane Addams”

November 17, 2007

Deerfield Area Branch, Mid-Lake County Branch, and Delta Kappa Gamma

Lake Forest College (Meyer Auditorium, Hotchkiss Hall)

Time: 10:00 a.m.

Cost: Free

Michael M.Ebner, professor of history at Lake Forest College, will speak and give a slide presentation about Jane Addams' life and work.

December 1, 2007

* * * Note new date and location * * *

Rockford Area Branch

Rockford College, Burpee Center

Time: 11:00 a.m.

Luncheon, celebration of Jane Addams, quilt raffle to benefit EF, and silent auction to benefit Rockford Branch programs.

Cost of luncheon-$25. Make check payable to Rockford Area Branch AAUW, mail to same, c/o Rockford YWCA, 4990 E. State St., Rockford-61108.

For more info, please contact the branch at aauwrockford@gmail.com.

Amy Nyman will present a dramatic portrayal of Jane Addams, a graduate of Rockford Womens' Seminary (the forerunner of Rockford College). The college has a collection of original writings by Jane Addams which will be on display. Everyone is invited.